After publishing their first book "A Kinder and Gentler Time," Jep and Bill Dennis have compiled these additional stories about growing up in Auburn, Alabama in the '40s and '50s. In these years Auburn was a small village where everyone knew almost everyone else and nearly every family had some connection to the college. The families in Auburn were seldom blessed with an abundance of material things, but most of them were blessed with a lot of more important things, and family values really meant something. These stories originally appeared in the Opelika-Auburn News
